ENTERED AT STATIONERS' HALL.

SPECIALITIES.

Picturesque Costumes.

Known as Liberty-Dresses. Models selected and designed from the most beautiful types in the past history of Costume. They combine refinement with distinction, and ARE NEVER OUT OF FASHION.

Fashionable Costumes.

Designed from Parisienne models excluding eccentricities and extremes in style. The earliest information is obtainable as Messrs. Liberty's premises in Paris are in the most fashionable quarter.

Bridesmaids' Costumes.

Charming and original models with hats, shoes and hosiery designed to harmonize.

Children's Costumes.

Frocks in quaint and dainty designs after the "Kate Greenaway," "Patience," and characteristic "Liberty" models.

Fancy Costumes.

Historical and Fancy Dresses designed from authoritative drawings and manuscripts in the possession of the Company.

Memoranda to avoid mistakes and delay .

In ordering a Costume, the page it is shown upon should be torn out. The mark of a cross (X) placed against the price, and, also, against the material selected. The page when marked should be forwarded by post apart from the book.

Silk Linings cost Two Guineas extra. The Prices quoted in this Book are for Costumes lined with sateen, or soft muslin.

Three or Four Days are required for Making up Dresses or Mantles. A Pattern Bodice (or Ordinary Measurements,) should be forwarded with the order.

Any of the Models illustrated can be made up in Mourning or Half-Mourning Colours.

Special Sketches prepared and Estimates submitted for any description of Costume, free of cost.
